

This is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. ~Jesus
John 17:3

Jesus Just a Piece of Flesh?

The Oneness doctrine that Oneness Pentecostals hold to is just as awful as the Trinity doctrine. With the Trinity doctrine we have 3 Gods, which consists of three “persons” that supposedly makes up one God. The Oneness Pentecostal doctrine (which is Modalism or Sabellianism) has one God as a single person who has revealed himself in three modes or forms. Both doctrines adopt each other’s language and pet scripture verses to prove their doctrine that Jesus is God.

What both doctrines do is reduce Jesus the Messiah to a piece of flesh who did not really exist as a total human being. In other words, according to both these doctrines, God needed a piece of flesh to clothe or robe himself in to walk and speak through. This boils down to being no different than God using Balaam’s ass, a piece of flesh!

Oneness and Trinitarians say it was Jesus’ flesh that was crucified; it was the flesh part that died, and it was Jesus’ flesh that was in the tomb, all this nonsensical language just to try and prove Jesus is God. Oh wow! How thoughtful to accept and believe a lie served to us on a silver platter from the enemy to turn us away from the teachings of Jesus that leave us without the Son and the Father! (2 John 1:9)

How can we ever appreciate God when we deny the true humanity of Christ and what he did for us? There is no problem understanding the scriptures that plainly show us the Father is the only true God and Jesus the Messiah is his Son (John 17:3; John 20:17, etc.).

No, Jesus is not God, but he is everything to God!
